

the Rigbees

Background:

A band with a songs-come-first philosophy, that formed around a collection of acoustic demos recorded by singer/songwriter Steve Brown, and since has forged a unique, dynamic blend of rootsy, engaging and instantly accessible pop rock.

Songs:

Driving, energetic and heartfelt roots-rock provides the backdrop for refreshing, original glimpses into the life of Everyman in pursuit of truth, beauty, happiness and fulfillment (read: a paycheck, a glass of beer, a day off and a lover they can understand).

Live Show:

The band has performed with national acts like Grammy-winners Train and has shared bills with bands including Buzz Zeemer, Tommy Conwell, The Latin Playboys, Brothers Past and Town Hall to name a few. At a RIGBEES performance, the lyrical sincerity and powerful friendliness of the music are what seem to instantly resonate with audiences, both familiar and new. A refreshing, engaging and uplifting onstage romp through the band's extensive catalog of original material could very well leave a Rigbees' song looping in your head for days.

Members:

Rod West (Keys, Percussion & Vocals), JP Levins (Bass & Vocals), Christopher Daniel (Guitars & Vocals), Hank Enck (Drums & Percussion), Steve Brown (Guitars & Lead Vocals)

Bottom Line:

The RIGBEES are five dedicated guys putting everything they've got into their music with the collective goal of making it matter.
